Friday, November 11

Program

Yale University
November 10-13, 1983

Society for Music Theory
Sixth Annual Meeting
Sunday, November 13

10:30-11:30 AM - Performing Arts Center (Wyly Humanities Center)

Choral Concert

The performing arts department presents a choral concert featuring various choirs from the university.

11:30 AM - Lunch at the Wyly Humanities Center

1:00 PM - Lecture Series: The Evolution of Music

Lecture on the evolution of music from ancient to modern times, exploring key developments and influences.

2:30 PM - Student Recital

Student musicians showcase their talents in a recital featuring various musical instruments.

5:00 PM - Reception at the Wyly Humanities Center

Celebratory event to conclude the day's events with music and mingling.

Saturday, November 12

8:00AM - Breakfast at the Wyly Humanities Center

Continental breakfast served, featuring both local and university-made fare.

9:00AM - Conference Papers: The Evolution of Music

Papers presented on the evolution of music, focusing on specific eras and genres.

10:30AM - Coffee Break

11:00AM - Conference Papers: The Evolution of Art

Papers presented on the evolution of art, highlighting key artistic movements and influences.

1:00PM - Lunch at the Wyly Humanities Center

2:00PM - Conference Papers: The Evolution of Literature

Papers presented on the evolution of literature, examining major literary works and movements.

5:00PM - Pilgrimage: A Model for Assessing Curricular Effectiveness

A session focused on using the pilgrim model to evaluate curricular effectiveness and student learning outcomes.